

Make Shapes

These flashcards will allow children to learn how to move their bodies well as well as exploring how to manage and control their body. These flashcards can either be held up by the teacher for the children to copy or can be placed around the gym as a rotational activity.

